

Dr. Donovan Storey, Deputy Director and Global Urban Lead, GGGI

Dr. Storey is currently Deputy Director and Global Urban Lead at GGGI (2016).

Before joining GGGI, he was section chief of Sustainable Urban Development (2012-2016) as well as Social Policy and Population (2011-2012) at United Nations ESCAP. He was also a senior lecturer of Urban Planning at the university of Queensland (2007-2011) and of Institute of Development Studies at Massey university (1999-2006).

He has a Ph.D. in Development Economics and International Development from Massey University (1993-1996).

Ms. Nathalie Andre
Specialist, Sanitation Policy Solutions, GGGI

Ms. Andre is currently a Specialist in Sanitation Policy Solutions at GGGI. Before joining GGGI in 2019 she was a consultant at UNICEF (2017-2018). She was also a consultant at UN-Water (2017-2018) and World Health Organization (2011-2015).

She holds a bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering at UCL (1995-1998) and a master's degree in Environmental Civil Engineering at university of Liverpool (1999-2001).

Mr. Mouhamadou Gueye
Director, Program for the Structuring of the Fecal Sludge Market in Senegal (PSMBV)/One-site Sanitation Direction, National Office of Sanitation of Senegal (ONAS)

Mr. Gueye has almost 20 years of progressive experience in food and chemical industries, quality and hygiene management, maintenance consulting, training, project management and official development assistance in the private and public sectors.

He was previously with the Korean International Cooperation Agency (2013-2017) as a project manager for hydraulic and sanitation sector.

In 2010-2013, he was with the Ministry of Industries, Small and Medium size Enterprises and Mines as a Director within the direction of agricultural products promotion.

In 2007-2010, he was the food and industries technical advisor of the Presidency of Republic of Senegal.

From 2001 to 2005, he was a technical then general manager of a small and medium size industry for production of detergents in Senegal.

In 1998-1999, he was a quality insurance manager at Colgate-Palmolive.

Mouhamadou GUEYE is a food processing engineer from France's National High Education School of agricultural and food industries (1997). He also holds a Master's in project management (2004) and got the London Chamber of Commerce and Industry Examination Board (LCCIEB) English Certificate level 2 from CESAG (2001). Now, he is following a PhD in rural hydraulic sector new reform in Senegal at Saint-Louis Gaston Berger University.

Mr. Romain Brillié
Country Representative, GGGI Senegal

Mr. Brillié is a Senegal Country Representative at GGGI. He was also a Mongolia Country Representative (2017-2020).

Before joining GGGI, he was Country Representative at AVSF (2015-2017), Founder and General Manager at Positive Footprint (2011-2015), External Adviser at Orano (2012-2015) and Senior Consultant at Utopies (2007-2011).

He holds a master's degree in Management, Social Economy, Sustainability from ESSCA School of Management (2001-2006).

Mr. Ramakantha Duwadi
Joint Secretary, Ministry of Water Supply for Nepal

Mr. Duwadi is the Joint Secretary in the Ministry of Water Supply (MoWS) for Nepal.

Previously, he was Deputy Director General as well as Regional Director under the Department of Water Supply & Sewerage Management (DWSSM). He is working as the Chairperson of National Sanitation & Hygiene Coordination Committee (NSHCC) of Nepal. In addition, he worked for a national pride project namely Melamchi Water Supply Project as Deputy Executive Director. He is also an Executive Committee member of Society of Public Health Engineers Nepal (SOPHEN).

He holds a master's degree in Environmental Sanitation from Ghent University, Belgium (-2009), and was awarded with TNAV-Water Technology Network of Flanders Prize for his best thesis submitted as the partial fulfilment of the Master's degree. He holds a bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering from Tribhuvan University, Nepal.

Mr. Rowan Fraser
Country Representative, GGGI Nepal

Mr. Fraser is a Nepal country representative at GGGI (2018). Before joining GGGI as senior program officer (2017-2018), he was a project consultant at United Nations ESCAP (2014-2016).

Previously, he was a Program Coordinator at Asian Disaster Preparedness Center (ADPC) (2012-2014) and a Graduate Analyst at ANRU (2010-2011).

He holds a master's degree in Urban Policy from Sciences Po (2010-2012). He also holds both bachelor and master's degrees in Architecture from University of Auckland.

Dr. Roshan Shrestha
Deputy Director, Global Growth Opportunities Division, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

Before joining the Gates Foundation in 2012, Dr. Shrestha worked with UN-Habitat (2008-2012) in different capacities including regional technical advisor, South Asia and settlement improvement advisor.

Dr. Shrestha has a Ph.D. in Applied Natural Sciences from the University of Natural Resources and Applied Life Sciences (BOKU), Vienna, Austria (1996-1999).

Dr. André Weidenhaupt
Director General, Ministry of the Environment, Climate and Sustainable Development, Luxembourg

Dr. Weidenhaupt is Director General of the Department for Environment of Luxembourg's Ministry for Sustainable development and Infrastructure.

Previously, Dr. André Weidenhaupt was Director of Luxembourg's Water Management Agency (Administration de la gestion de l'eau) (2005-2014). Prior to joining Luxembourg's civil service, Dr. Weidenhaupt lectured Environmental Technology at the Luxembourg University of applied sciences and was the Director of the Environmental Technology Research Centre (CRTE) at the Public Research Centre CRP Henri Tudor in Luxembourg.

He has a Ph.D. in Natural Sciences from the ETH and the Swiss Federal Institute of Aquatic Science and Technology (EAWAG).

Mr. Bounchanh Keosithamma
Director General, Vientiane City Office for Management and Service (VCOMS)

Mr. Keosithamma is Director General of Vientiane City Office for Management and Service (VCOMS), Lao PDR.

He is working closely with GGGI, especially in the project, titled “Wastewater and Solid Waste Treatment Capacity Building Project for City Environment Improvement in Laos’ project in Vientiane” which was launched in 2019.

Mr. Chek Noy
Municipal Technical Coordinator, Waste Management, Battambang city, Cambodia

Mr. Noy is the Deputy Director of the Office of Transportation, Sanitation, Environment and Public Order at the Municipality of Battambang, Cambodia.

He has been in charge of waste management in Battambang for the past 8 years and holds a master’s degree from Sri Lanka and further qualification in municipal waste management from Japan. In the past years, as Municipal Technical Coordinator – Waste Management, he has been responsible for implementing GGGI recommendations on improving recycling of plastic and organic waste in the city.

Ms. Pod Estelle Ndour
Head, Waste Economy Department, Solid Waste Management Unit (UCG), Senegal

Ms. Ndour is an industrial process engineer and holds an MBA in international management. She is currently the Head of Strategy and Development at Senegal’s Solid Waste Management Coordination Unit. In addition, she coordinates the Sustainable Management of Urban Solid Waste (PGDSU) project financed by the Islamic Development Bank (IDB) and the State of Senegal. As part of this project, she coordinated the construction of twenty waste treatment infrastructures and the acquisition of related collection and pre-collection equipment. She supported three beneficiary municipalities in the erection of integrated solid waste management systems with consideration of waste recovery.

Estelle is strong of seven years of experience in the Senegalese public administration and conducted multiple waste characterization studies. She also supervised the development of the Senegal’s National Solid Waste Management Strategy and the Senegal Zero Waste Program, a keystone program of Senegal’s main development policy, the Emerging Senegal Plan.

Mr. Aaron Drayer, Country Representative, GGGI Peru

Mr. Drayer has been Peru Country Representative at GGGI since 2016. From 2013-2016, he was the Program Manager also at GGGI.

Prior to working at GGGI, Mr. Drayer was Economic Development Manager at USAID Forestry Policy Project/Chemonics International (2011-2013). He was at USAID Alternative Development Program/Chemonics International over 8 years as Director of Economic Development (2010-2011), Technical Support Team Director (2006-2009), Director of Land Titling Program (2005), Director of Infrastructure Program (2004) and Operations Manager (2003).

He holds a master's degree in International Affairs from the George Washington University (2000-2002) and a bachelor's degree in International Relations from Texas A&M University (1992-1996).

Dr. Jaeseung Lee Country Representative, GGGI Laos

Dr. Lee is the Country Representative for GGGI's Lao PDR program.

Prior to the current role, Dr. Lee was Principal Economist at GGGI HQ, Principal Consultant at Samsung SDS, and Senior Consultant at ICF International.

He has a Ph.D. degree in Economics from the University of California, Los Angeles and a BA degree in Economics from the University of Chicago.

Dr. Mahamadou Tounkara Director, Office of Director-General, GGGI

Dr. Tounkara is currently the Director of Office of Director-General (ODG), Governance, Strategies, Partnerships and Communications, at the GGGI.

He has more than 31 years of experience in international development across technical and managerial responsibilities, covering interdisciplinary teams in 89 countries in Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe, Middle East and the Pacific, in multicultural environments, working with governments, bilateral and multilateral agencies, private sector and civil society organizations, to advance the development agendas and international commitments.
